Editor's comments:

Your article has been accepted for publication, congratulations. On the other hand, the following adjustments are necessary when submitting the final version of the article to be published.

1 - In summary, writing in English, Spanish and Portuguese make no sense. Please review the writing: "We suggest for students to increase the information gap between students."

2 - Table 2 must be cited in the text.

From table 2, the terms "Islamic Financial Institutions" and "The Sharia Council of Islamic Financial Institutions" are used at the beginning of each paragraph. I suggest that synthesis be made so as not to be repetitive.

3 - In the conclusions, insert the theoretical and managerial implications of the study. Also, insert limitations and suggestions for future research.
