Dear Dr SINTHA WAHJUSAPUTRI,

It is my pleasure to notify you that your paper entitled "Implementation of the 8+I Link And Match Program at the Center of Excellence SMK Muhammadiyah 1 Ciputat Vocational School, South Tangerang, Banten Province" may be accepted with minor adjustments in the Journal of Education and Learning (EduLearn), if your revision is appropriate. Authors are advised to carefully evaluate the reviewers' comments and suggestions for manuscript development, and to rigorously adhere to the authors' guidance (<http://iaescore.com/gfa/edulearn.docx>).

Please adhere to these rules to guarantee that your work is full and formatted correctly.

- Only high-quality manuscripts are published in this journal. A high-quality paper MUST include the following features: 1) a clear presentation of the topic addressed by the study; 2) the proposed idea(s)/solution(s); and 3) the findings obtained. It clearly summarizes what has previously been done on the subject, as well as what is NEW. Your updated paper should describe NOVEL TECHNICAL RESULTS.

- Make certain that your conversation section is appropriate. The "results and discussion" section summarizes the most important findings, including any relevant results analysis.

- The title describes the key notion or ideas of your study (the title is your paper's "summary" and "essence"). The title should be both "inclusive" and "descriptive." A excellent title uses as few words as possible to accurately convey the content and/or aim of your research paper. Use abbreviations and acronyms sparingly unless they are widely recognized.

Please try to arrange your paper; the audiences of this journal are not only Indonesian authors but also international audiences. The findings should benefit international audiences.

Submit your updated paper through our online system as author version (but if you reach any problems, you can submit your updated paper to email: EduLearn@uad.ac.id cc: EduLearn@journal.uad.ac.id) within 6 weeks

Your cooperation is very appreciated

Best Regards,

----- ##### - IMPORTANT - ##### -----

- For an original research paper, there are four (4) sorts of innovative technical outcomes: 1) An method/technique/approach/framework/...; 2) A system construct, such as a hardware design, software system, protocol, and so on; The major purpose of your rewritten article is to guarantee that the next individual who builds a system similar to yours does not make the same mistakes and takes benefit of some of your better ideas. So make certain that the difficult problems (and their answers) are covered, as well as the non-obvious mistakes (and how to prevent them). 3) A performance evaluation: acquired by analysis, simulation, or measurements; or 4) A theory: a set of theorems. Your updated paper should emphasize: 1) Describing the results in sufficient detail to verify their validity; 2) Identifying the innovative parts of the results, i.e., what new information is revealed and what makes it non-obvious; and 3) Identifying the relevance of the results: what improvements and effect do they imply. A minimum of 25 references are required for an original research work (included 20 recent journal articles).

- For review paper, there should be a critical, constructive review of the literature in a certain topic via summary, categorization, analysis and comparison in this work. The purpose of a review article is one of five things: 1) to arrange literature; 2) to assess literature; 3) to find patterns and trends in literature; 4) to synthesize literature; or 5) to identify research gaps and offer new areas of investigation. The structure includes:

1. Title – in this case does not indicate that it is a review article.

2. Abstract – includes a description of subjects covered.

3. Introduction includes a description of context (paragraph 1–3), motivation for review (paragraph 4, sentence #1) and defines the focus (paragraph 4, sentences #2–3)

4. Body – structured by headings and subheadings

5. Conclusion – states the implications of the findings and an identifies possible new research fields

6. References ("Literature Review") – organised by number in the order they were cited in the text.

Number of minimum references for review paper is 50 references (and minimum 40 recently journal articles).

- Abstract: Prepare your abstract in one paragraph of no more than 200 words. You must summarize your contribution, hypothesis, findings/results, and discuss the consequences of your findings. There are no abbreviations, footnotes, or references. Without the use of mathematical equations, graphs, or tabular data. It is recommended that you offer your abstract using the following elements: 1) state the primary goal of the paper; 2) highlight the merits (or contribution; 3) provide a conceptual idea on the method; 4) describe the research design and procedures/processes used (is it simulation, experimental, survey, etc.); 5) provide the main outcomes or results, as well as any conclusions that may be drawn; and 6) include any implications for further research or application/practice, if any.

The following criteria should be carefully considered in your updated paper:

1. Analysis: Your rewritten article should exhibit a thorough comprehension of the major problems surrounding your chosen topic. The article should demonstrate analysis rather than a simple overview of the issue under examination. It should also offer proof to back its arguments if needed.
  2. Connections: Throughout the research, your work should illustrate a relationship between the sources you include and the major issue.
  3. Mechanics: This involves paying attention to punctuation, grammar, and spelling mistakes in your contributions.
  4. Formatting: Follow the updated author's guide (<http://iaescore.com/gfa/edulearn.docx>).
