To whom it may concern,

MR DENI ADHA AKBARI

The High Commission wishes to confirm that Mr Deni Adha Akbari has been a Locally Recruited Staff at the High Commission from 01 September 2008 till 31 May 2012. His last position at the High Commission was as Consular Clerk.

2. Throughout his stint at the High Commission, Mr Deni has demonstrated exemplary character in his dealing with the public and attention to detail in pursuing his daily official tasks. He always carries himself with a smile and this trait is inspiring to his peers and his superiors alike. He has undertaken improvement and innovation to his work processes where this has contributed to productivity and no doubt would benefit his successor as well.

3. The High Commission will miss Mr Deni at the office but is fully aware that he has to return to his home country to further his ambition for the future. The High Commission wish him well in his future undertaking and is certain he would be an asset to any organisation he associates with.
