

About Journal

Sanus Medical Journal is a peer-reviewed medical and health journal published periodically every six months. Sanus Medical Journal publishes descriptive, analytical, and experimental studies, reviews, systematic reviews, case reports, letters, and editorials in the fields of Medicine, Health, Medical and Health Education, and Islamic Medicine. The scope of Sanus Medical Journal goes beyond the boundaries of discussions in the fields of clinical medicine and health in general, by providing new insights into etiologies, determinants, distribution, management and prevention of diseases in individuals and communities. Sanus Medical Journal attempts to meet the demands of rapid developments in information and medical and health research by committing to reduce the range of online publications to around six weeks after the submission of a manuscript. Articles will be published online in advance, and the printed version included in the next scheduled edition. Sanus Medical Journal will continue to strive to improve its scientific reputation by publishing quality articles reviewed by experts who are highly competent in their respective fields. Sanus Medical Journal greatly appreciates the contributions of authors from related disciplines. Manuscripts can be sent via email to: smjournal@uhamka.ac.id or via the website <http://journal.uhamka.ac.id/index.php/smj>.
